Little Rock, AR- Treasurer of State Dennis Milligan welcomed newly elected Arkansas Boy's State Treasurer James Robinson, II to the office.

Milligan stated, "It is an honor and privilege to welcome Treasurer Robinson to the Office of Treasurer of State and turn the keys over to him for the day. Boy's State is a tremendous program and I commend the American Legion for another exciting year."

"It is vital that we continue to educate Arkansas' students about civics and government. This is a wonderful experience to dive deep into the workings of our state government."

Robinson is a native of Jacksonville and attends North Pulaski High School. He will be graduating next year.

Robinson stated, "I am excited to be able to serve as Treasurer of State for Boy's State this year and have appreciated this great learning experience. I want to thank Treasurer Milligan and his staff for welcoming me and my staff into the office today."

"I am looking forward to this experience, working with all the office staff and serving the hardworking taxpayers of Arkansas today."
