Treasurer Dennis Milligan Appointed to National Association of State Treasurers

Will serve as Vice President of Southern Region

Little Rock, Ark. – Arkansas Treasurer of State Dennis Milligan was chosen by the National Association of State Treasurers' Executive Committee to serve as the Southern Region Vice President through the remainder of this calendar year. Milligan replaces former Georgia Treasurer Steve McCoy, whose term as Treasurer ended in May.

In his role as Vice President, Milligan will facilitate regional meetings, mentor new treasurers, and serve as the liaison between members of the Southern Region and the National Executive Committee.

"I am humbled and excited about the opportunity to serve my colleagues around the country in this role, and I look forward to helping bring my team's innovative mindset to the executive committee," Milligan said.

Dennis Milligan was elected Treasurer of State in 2014 and re-elected in 2018. The State Treasury is responsible for overseeing the state's $4 billion portfolio. Since taking office in 2015, Milligan has received the state more than $278 million in investment returns and has grown the investment portfolio's receipts to some of the highest levels in nearly a decade.
